

Dolphin Fluidics Privacy Policy

Information relating to art. 13 of the Legislative Decree dated 30 June 2003, no. 196.

According to and as determined in art. 13 of the Legislative Decree dated 30 June 2003, no. 196, relating to the protection of personal data, Dolphin Fluidics S.r.l. hereafter also referred to as “Dolphin”, with offices in Corsico (MI), at Via Volta, no. 6 - 20094, as a controller of personal data for processing purposes (hereafter “Controller”), is required to communicate the following information concerning the use of your personal data, as the subject of the data to be processed.

The processing of your personal data currently in our possession and acquired directly from yourself, is manual, automatic and computerized, for purposes strictly related to specific ends and may entail all actions foreseen under art. 4, para. 1, letter a), of Legislative Decree no. 196/2003. In any case, all such data will be processed according to the Law and the requirements for privacy established by it, by authorised parties and applying measures of security consistent with legal requirements.

The data, including sensitive data, are processed as part of the normal activities of our business, for the following purposes:

a) purposes related to and necessary for providing you information on valves and/or other products of Dolphin.

Conferment and processing of your personal data is obligatory for purposes as set forth in the letter a); thus refusal would make such information on Dolphin’s products impossible.

Data supplied by you could also be transferred and/or communicated, for the above mentioned purposes, to suppliers services related to maintenance of the data processing systems, as well as companies which carry out activities of storage and management of files, also outside the European Union.

Lastly, it is notified that art. 7 of the Legislative Decree dated 30 June 2003, no. 196 grants the exercise of specific rights to interested parties, including the right to obtain Controller’s confirmation of the existence or otherwise of your personal data and that such data will be made available in an intelligible form, the right to request deletion, conversion to an anonymous form, or stoppage of data in violation of the law, as well as the right to withdraw consent to their processing for legitimate reasons.

The Controller of data for processing is Dolphin Fluidics S.r.l., with offices in Corsico (MI), at Via Volta, no. 6 – 20094.
